Proposed Amendment of Agency Regulation [REDACTED]

STATINTL

1. In accordance with your request, returned herewith are the papers concerning subject which were referred to this Office on an informal basis.

2. From a security standpoint we concur in the changes recommended in your proposed memorandum to the DD/A except for change "m.". As an alternative, we suggest that Section 10. of CIA Regulation [REDACTED] be revised as follows:

*SECTION 10. SPECIAL SECURITY SITUATIONS

"In those situations where the Board Hearing would necessarily involve sensitive security information or improper disclosure of intelligence sources and methods, proceedings will not be conducted under these regulations but will be conducted in accordance with procedures established by the Director of Central Intelligence under the authority of Section 102c of the National Security Act of 1947."
